Vesica Features Comparison Chart

This chart compares Vesica's out of the box feature offering to other museum collection software providers.

With Vesica, you get all of the listed features, all-inclusive, without any storage restrictions, additional fees, or hidden charges for only £0.05 ($0.08) per object per month. In addition to that, we'll even build any additional features you need without any added cost to you!

The competition may not have all the features available, or will charge you additional fees to add or develop them.

The world's first true Software as a Service (SaaS) application for museums, Vesica reflects the future of software technology for museums' collection management. Vesica is developed and managed in London by Vesica Ltd.
